AT the Council-Chamber at Whitehall, the 10th Day of February, 1721.

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton Lord Lieutenant of the County and Town of Southampton, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Dorset and Town and County of Pool; his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy. As did likewise,

The Right Honourable Richard Earl of Scarborough, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northumberland, and of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Westminster, February 12. His Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Sanderson, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for making the River Eden Navigable, to Bank-End in the County of Cumberland.

And to Eleven Private Bills.

Turin, Feb. 11, N. S. The second Batallion of Desporte's Regiment, French Refugees, marched the 5th Instant out of our Citadel for Mondovi: A Detachment of the Royal Dragoons has in the mean Time taken Possession of it, till the Arrival of the first Batallion of Desporte's which is to remain in Garrison here. The coming of the Guards is suspended till towards the Time that the Princess of Sultzbach is expected to arrive here: Their Removal from Suza will occasion the Change of all the Garrisons throughout Piedmont. Great Preparations are making against the Princess's Arrival: Her Highness will make her Entry by Night; all the Streets through which she passes are to be illuminated; a Triumphal Arch is to be erected near the Palace; and all the Burghers have received Orders to appear under Arms in proper Accoutrements. The 5th being the Princess of Sultzbach's Birth-Day, though no publick Notice was taken of it at the King's Court, yet the Prince appeared in a magnificent new Suit, gave a Supper at his own Apartment, and afterwards a splendid Ball at the Marquess de la Roche's House, which was illuminated on the Outside from Top to Bottom with white Wax Torches. On the 7th the following Promotions were made, on Account of the approaching Marriage. For the Queen's Court, The Marchioness de Pianesse Groom of the Stole, Madam de St. Marsan first Lady of the Bed Chamber, Mesdames de Bourg, Massel, de Provana, and de Gares, Ladies of the Bed-Chamber. For the Princess's Court, The Marchioness de St. Thomas Groom of the Stole, Madam St. Sebastien first Lady of the Bed-Chamber, Mesdames Sallasque, Pron, de Vallese, and de Provana, Ladies of the Bed-Chamber.

Paris, Feb. 18. On Sunday last the 15th Instant, being the Day on which the King entered into his 13th Year, his Majesty received the Compliments from the Princes and Princesses ceſſes of the Blood, the foreign Miniſters, and the whole Court. There was a Concert of Muſick during the King's Dinner, and in the Afternoon his Majeſty, accompanied by the Duke of Bourbon and the Marſhal de Villars, went to the Fauxbourg St. Antoine, to ſee the Masks that are uſed to aſſemble there during the laſt three Days of the Carnival. The Diſpute which aroſe lately in the Council of Regency between the Cardinal de Rohan and the Chancellour for Precedency, is not finally decided; but a Reſolution has been taken that this Affair ſhall remain in the State it is now, till the King ſhall determine otherwiſe; ſo that the Cardinal de Rohan keeps the Place he has taken above the Chancellour, and 'tis believed that next Sunday the Cardinal du Bois will likewiſe be introduced into the Council of Regency, and be placed next to that Prelate. Upon the Cardinal du Bois's reſigning the Employment of Councellour of State, the Abbot de Ravannes ſucceeds him in that Dignity. It is ſaid the Marſhal d'Uxelles deſigns to follow the Example of M. Pelletier de Souzy, to retire into a Convent and paſs the remainder of his Life in Devotion. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 10th of February, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

The Duke de Roquelaure in his Letter of the 27th of January writes, that all goes better and better in the Gevaudan; they are employed with all Diligence in diſinfecting (cleanſing and perfuming) the Houſes; there are no longer any ſick at Salindre, Bourdy, Blanſac, Ribauté, and Bagars. Three Perſons have died at Blatiers, of whom two of the Plague: Two remain ſick there. At Blanas nine in all have died in two Months, that Village is now in perfect Health. The Chevalier Damas in his of the 28th of January ſends a Letter from M. de la Deveze, importing, that he was going towards St. Latger and Marvejols, to ſee the Diſinfection finiſhed: Conges, Valfournes, Vergognoux, and Chabalier were free from Sickneſs; ſo likewiſe are le Gratoux, Chapginies, Villerouſſet, and Rochiniac. The Removal of Wooll, Stuffs, and Filth, cannot fail to give the Infection anew to ſome Perſons; but it is better that ſhould be now than in the Spring; this Work will decide every where whether the Plague be ceaſed. M. Bernard who commands at Alais, writes the 23d of January, that there were 32 ſick that Day in the Infirmaries of the Suburbs; and that two had newly fallen ill in the Town. M. de Vieuſſens Phyſician at Alais, writes the 26th of January, that from the 23d to the 26th, no more than three had fallen ſick in the Town, and a Child of two Years old. M. de Fraiſſe the commanding Officer at Mende, in his of the 20th of January writes, that the Quarantain there was prolonged to the 27th, becauſe the Perfumes neceſſary for the Diſinfection were not yet provided in ſufficient Quantity. Since the 14th eight Perſons had died, and 10 had fallen ill; 26 were remaining in the Infirmary, 34 in the Houſe for the recovering, and 42 performing Quarantain. There were none ſick at the Villages of Alteriac and of Mas. M. d'Iverny Brigadier in his of the 26th of January, confirms the forementioned Accounts, adding that the Village of Caila in the Pariſh of St. Paul la Coſte had had none dead or ſick in 20 Days. Commiſſary Laurent writes the 23d of January, that the Diſinfection of Cucuron would be finiſhed the beginning of February, and then the Blockade would be raiſed. The Lower Provence is now in as good a State of Health as the Upper. The Re-eſtabliſhing of Commerce between one Place and another, ſince the Arrival of the Marqueſs de Brancas, has produced Good only, and 'tis hoped that with the Precautions he enjoins nothing Bad will happen from it. Several Perſons a Day ſtill die at Avignon, notwithſtanding which the Diſtemper is conſiderably decreaſed there. Moſt of the other Places of the Comtat which were infected, are now well, or have but very few ſick.

Whereas ſeveral Penſioners belonging to the Royal Hoſpital near Chelſea have been cured of very large Ruptures by Dr. Tho. Rentone, and there being a great many In and Out-Penſioners ſo diſabled; Theſe are to give Notice that the Lords and others Commiſſioners for the Affairs of the ſaid Hoſpital have thought fit to appoint the ſaid Dr. Rentone to undertake the Cure of all In and Out-Penſioners afflicted with Ruptures, to the end that ſuch diſabled Perſons do repair to the ſaid Hoſpital, where they may be cured by the ſaid Dr. Rentone. By Order, Kingſmill Eyre, Secr.
